The Honorable
Lyman B. Kirkpatrick
Executive Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

As you may know, a number of friends and members of public affairs organizations in which the late Louis Brownlow played a vital role in his lifetime have organized a Memorial Fund in his honor. The Fund will be used to support undertakings appropriate to his memory in which Mr. Brownlow would have had an interest. A prospectus describing the Fund and its administration is enclosed.

A Louis Brownlow Memorial Fund Committee has been appointed to assist in the task of raising funds and advise on their use as a fitting memorial to a beloved friend, teacher, and pioneer in public administration. The Committee consists of only a small fraction of the host of people who were "Brownie's" personal friends and who are identified with organizations and causes to which he devoted his life and energies, one of which, of course, was the National Institute of Public Affairs.

The American Society for Public Administration has agreed to serve as administrator of the Fund and contributions should be sent to them. As you will see, the Public Administration Service is offering gift sets of the Brownlow books to those making the first 200 contributions. The request form for the gift books should be sent directly to PAS.

Many of "Brownie's" friends have been expectantly awaiting this appeal to be organized. I hope you are one of those who will respond generously.

Sincerely,

Carl F. Stover

enclosure

P.S. If you receive duplicate appeals, please understand that it has not been feasible to prepare a central mailing list in view of the many persons and organizations cooperating in this Fund.
